Dear Ms. Lochiatto:

Based on the annual review package provided by you, a determination has been made that your firm remains eligible for certification as a WBE for the State of Rhode Island Minority Business Enterprise Program. Your "Minority Business Certification Number," which you can utilize as proof of your status, is MBCN 747. Your company has been approved as a WBE for the following scope: "office furniture dealer/supplier/retailer; interior space planner and commercial furniture interior design consultant; commercial furniture specifier; bid package preparation and project relocation coordinator; professional supplies wholesaler" firm under primary NAICS Code 423210, 423220, 541410, 449110, 459510, 423490.

In order to maintain your certification during the certification period, you must submit your annual review package thirty (30) days prior to your annual review date which is 10/28/2026.

Your annual review package must include:

- (a) a completed MBE/WBE Declaration of Eligibility.
- (b) current corporate federal tax returns, including all federal schedules and attachments, for the applicant firm and any affiliate firms.
- (c) copy of your current certification letter from your home state UCP if your firm is not based in Rhode Island.
- (d) copy of valid Rhode Island licenses if your business is operating in a licensed industry.

Please be advised that it is your responsibility to notify the Minority Business Enterprise Compliance Office of any changes in the ownership or control of your business within thirty (30) days of such changes.

We wish you success in the State of Rhode Island's Minority Business Enterprise Program; and if we can be of further assistance to you, please contact this office.

Sincerely,

Meg dela Dingco
